DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Livesay (US Patent No. 3,766,749). Livesay discloses an integrated air conditioner comprising: a condenser (28) with a housing, a condenser fan (30) and flexible hinges (see column 3, 17-21).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Livesay in view of "Official Notice". Livesay discloses the claimed invention as stated above but lack to mention an upper cover that rotates. Examiner takes "Official Notice" since it is well known in the art to provide a cover that is capable of rotating or pivoting about an axis. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at time on invention to provide a cover with hinge at an upper surface for the means of easy access into condenser housing for routine maintenance and service.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Melvin Jones whose telephone number is (571)272-4810. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday- Wednesday & Friday.
